Apollo Bicycles

enjoying to the fullest the exhilarating effects produced by speedy and easy locomotion. The defects of the average bicycle are absent from the Apollo. It's away above the average wheel in point of quality, but sells at the average wheel's price.

is next to the table in usefulness. It should also be beautiful as it usually occupies a conspicuous position in the dining room. Like all the articles in our large stock of Furniture, our line of sideboards are distinctly graceful in design and well finished. They are not product of hasty thought and unskilled hands. Every piece is well made and well joined. They are built to last. But the most surprising thing about them is the price. We offer a Sideboard of wonderful value at a price that cannot be beaten.

MEMORIAL DAY.

General Order Issued by the Department of Pennsylvania.

"The thirty-three years since the rifle and the sabre were displaced by the hammer and the plough; thirty-three years since the uniform of blue was exchanged for the habiliments of peace; thirty-three years of achievements that impress the truism, 'Peace hath her victories no less renowned than war,'"

Monuments have been reared to our heroes and to their heroic deeds, some casting shadows on placid waters, others standing above mountain tops; "but neither classic bust, nor monumental marble, nor lofty cenotaph, nor stately urn, nor enduring bronze, nor everlasting granite, can add to the glory of our dead comrades in the land they loved so well."

Again we are approaching Memorial Day, again, with fragrant flowers, sweet music and patriotic eloquence, we shall stand by the side of the graves of our comrades and pay to them the tribute of our heart's affection—of our loving remembrance of their gallant deeds—and over the little green mounds, which are now their bivouacs, renew our devotion to their memories and to the cause for which they battled.

Loving hands shall place the evergreen and the rose, the lily and the violet, on the hillocks of green which mark the resting-places of our soldier and sailor dead, sweet voices shall sing their praises and fervent hearts shall teach eloquent tongues to reverentially voice gems of thought in memory of our heroes gone.

Our Memorial Day is not a day for sackcloth and ashes; it is not a day for mourning or for fasting, nor should it be a day devoted to any patriotic American to frivolous festivities or to holiday pastimes. It is a day for flag, for flowers, for music, for patriotism, a day for communing with the dead who died that the Nation might live, for the dead who died that "this Nation might not perish from off the earth."

Let all the people gather spring-time's brightest garlands to decorate our heroes graves; not one shall be forgotten. In twining wreaths on monuments to leaders we pay a tribute to those who were led; a rosebud on the grave of a private soldier or sailor symbolizes our love to the memory of all who wore the Union blue whether they sleep their last sleep amid tablets of marble or of bronze or found their final resting-place beneath the waters of our rivers and seas.

"The meaneast rill, the mightiest river, Roll mingling with their fame forever."
